COMPANY OVERVIEW

Bara Ex Nihilo Holdings, LLC (BENH) provides value-added responsive services and turnkey solutions for a variety of clients challenges in janitorial services and facility maintenance support. Our janitorial approach follows these 5-steps: assess and create a mobilization plan, training and development of all staff members, quality assurance, procurement plan and lastly, operational plan.

BENH was founded in 2018 by Maritza Guillaume-Émile, an industry expert with over 25 years of industry experience. BENH is a minority-woman owned and operated company distinguished by an exceptional combination of industry expertise and knowledge. Our approach to success is predicated on a safety-first mindset, multi-disciplinary strategic planning process, integration of proven quality management practice and attention to green and sustainable solutions. Our technical experts have decades of experience providing outstanding and innovative solutions in janitorial and facility maintenance services.
